

BRUSH AND INK

WITH RICHARD LIDDICUT,
JULIAN CORNISH, & MEAH VELIK-LORD

JULY - SEPTEMBER 2025

A Short Course in Japanese Ink Painting and Calligraphy

Traditional Japanese calligraphy and many techniques of sumi painting require the practitioner to follow a prescribed choreography of ink, brush, paper, posture and breath. This develops a deeper mindfulness, a refinement of perception and a focussing of one's innate energies. This approach will be complimented with recognition of each student's uniqueness and a chance for them to improvise with brush and ink.

MATERIALS: Regular students are required to bring their own materials except for felt, paper and liquid ink. New students may borrow materials for the first class, if they discuss this with Richard in advance of their course (an appropriate brush is important). But please bring an absorbent rag.

Richard runs Childrens' Saturday Brush and Ink classes for 9 - 16 year olds.

THE TEACHERS:

Richard : Since 1973 Richard has studied under a number of Oriental Ink Brush painting and calligraphy teachers. His major teachers have been André Sollier, Yap Teo Khoon, Ms Shigyoku Kitaoji, Zhang Jian Xhong, Yao Dixiong and Mr Houzan Ikegami. For 16 years he studied under the modern Japanese calligraphy master, the late Inagaki Suho, and presently holds the teaching rank 'Shihan Kaku' with the Shodo Gaku Shu School, Nagoya Japan. In 1980 he began teaching Ink Brush painting at Mangala Studios. He has exhibited on numerous occasions in Australia and overseas.

Julian : A past high school and working with adults with disabilities art teacher, began his study of brush & ink painting with Richard in the early 1990s. He presently helps run Papermill Gallery, Fyansford, as well as teaching brush & ink workshops in regional Victoria and interstate, and develops his skills as an artist with brush & ink and the Australian bush as his focus.

Meah : A zookeeper, dance teacher and performer, who established her company, Travel Art Dance Company, while still at university. Meah has been painting with Richard since her early days at primary school. She teaches and helps with the current kids brush & ink classes, and brings with her teaching a calm clarity and orderliness.
